"I will be a dancer until the day I die," said "Lord of the Dance" king MICHAEL FLATLEY. But here in Barbados, where Michael has a home, it looks like the 5-foot-9, 50-year-old Riverdance master hasn't been dancing off the calories lately. His gut's growing - and there's a man boob situation developing.

Former Howard Stern patsy JOHN MELENDEZ, 42, overcame his stuttering problem, but now needs to overcome his overeating. The 5-foot-7 1/2, 174-pounder formerly known as Stuttering John is sputtering out of his swim trunks in Hawaii.

WORST BODIES

Bigfella! Walking on a Bahama beach, ROBERT DE NIRO shows he's no longer the "Raging Bull" or "Cape Fear" fi. But we'll give the two-time Oscar winner a break. He isn't incredibly out of shape. He got a gut, but who doesn't at 64

It appears that 35-year-old record producer JERMAINE DUPRI isn't counting calories. Janet Jackson's love, shown here in Miami, is only 5-foot-2 and weighs 190 pounds!

Hollywood heavyweight! At 70, DUSTIN HOFFMAN is ignoring the "no guts, no glory" rule. The two-time Oscar winner has that belly-flop look as he takes a dip in the waters of St. Barts.
